

CHECKPOINT

VFW Checkpoint – January/February 2023

Happy New Year, Checkpoint readers! Your latest installment of the Checkpoint newsletter has arrived.

Please take this opportunity to see what other Posts around the world are doing to better their communities. Be sure to share the valuable information you get here with your fellow VFW members. If you know someone who is not receiving Checkpoint, encourage them to email magazine@vfw.org and get signed up.

This issue of Checkpoint talks about VFW's much-anticipated second annual Day of Service on May 6. With nearly 100 percent of Posts that participated last year planning to do so again, it is sure to be a success for the VFW. Additionally, VFW launched a new website to help veterans quickly locate a VFW service officer. Find out what you need to know to access this vital information. A Post in Wisconsin received a $50,000 grant from T-Mobile towards the Post's Freedom Park Center, which will house a veteran's center. Read these articles and more in this issue of Checkpoint and let us know what you think.

Be sure to let us know what your Post is doing in your community. We always are looking to promote the great efforts of VFW. Email ldyhouse@vfw.org your suggestion, and you just might see it in an upcoming issue of Checkpoint.
